

Physics Study Group FAQs

Do I have to register in order to attend a study group? Yes

Can I come once or twice when I need help?

No. There is free tutoring available at the Rutgers Learning Centers though, see lrc.rutgers.edu

Who decides how we spend our time in the study group?

You do

What if I have an excused absence?

You are allowed two absences, excused or unexcused. After that you are deregistered. Absences are too disruptive to the group; each member is responsible for contributing materials, notes, knowledge, outlines, solutions etc.

What if I have too many credits and cannot add 1 more credit?

Can I still join a study group?

Contact Mr. Mark Sapara, the Director of the Learning Assistant Program, and he will help you: Sapara@echo.rutgers.edu

What if I can't make any of the times offered?

Then you cannot sign up for a study group this semester.

How do I register?

Online. Any of these ways will get you to the registration website:

- Check your Rutgers email, you should have an email that includes the registration link.
- Go to your course website, the link is posted there.
- Go to the website lrc.rutgers.edu, the link is posted there.
