

To extract the data file (channel number and the count) from the data acquisition program, open Edit menus and choose Copy. Then open your favorite program (Excel, notepad, etc.) and Paste. Now the data file so created can be read by Origin program or other plotting programs. The data file can also be manipulated to change the channel number to energy, for example.