

Intelligent Tutoring Systems

- Interactively helps students while they try to solve physics problems:

- Not just a homework grader

- Not just right or wrong

- Models student understanding

- Which parts of solving the problem does the student already know

- What approach are they taking

- Provides tutorial help when misconceptions observed.

- Provides guidance when student doesn't know how to proceed.