Dear Professor Kotliar:

Congratulations on winning a 2003 Guggenheim Fellowship. To be among only 184 recipients chosen from a field of nearly 3,200 highly qualified candidates is a great recognition of your talent, your accomplishments, and your potential to make important contributions in material design and within the field of physics as a whole. I am delighted to have you as a leading member of the superb Rutgers community of scholarship. Please accept my best wishes for your every continued success.

Sincerely yours,
